FISHING IS PROFITABLE.

lmost Breaks Up Farming in Parts of Northumberland.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Heathsville, Va., June 22.—In this colon the fishing industry has broken programming to a great extent. It has meet to the pass now that the farmers, life few exceptions. do not raise on or hay to serve them. Tens of ay are brought from the city, and it miles are frequently so bare of its properties of mean that not even a bushel of mean corn can be obtained.

The fame of the "gold mine" that of fish factories or menhaden industry have proven has spread abroad, and certain syndicates are making remuous efforts to buy up all the ctories possible and merge into one, this plan most of the smaller share-olders are bitterly opposed.
